OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 3 December 1959

25X1

1. Mr. Charles Lombard on the staff of the Republican Policy Committee telephoned to inquire if we had any information concerning Khrushchev stating publicly that if necessary he would send tanks back into Hungary. [REDACTED]

2. Learned that Senator Stuart Symington had telephoned Dr. Scoville presumably relating to being brought up to date on Soviet strings of ICBMs.

Attempted to reach Senator Symington later in the day to advise him of our briefing arrangements and was advised that he was out of town until next Tuesday.

3. Attending^{ed} a meeting in the White House called by Ed McCabe to discuss current status of the Jackson Subcommittee investigation under S. Res. 115. Generally the reports from agency representatives indicated that there were currently no difficulties and activities of the Subcommittee staff were continuing with an apparent careful regard for the agreement between Senator Jackson and the President on the scope of the investigation. [REDACTED]

5. Left with Mrs. McLean in Congressman Robert B. Chipperfield's office a brochure on employment opportunities in the Agency and a set of application forms. These were left in response to Mrs. McLean's call in which she indicated that [REDACTED] was interested in employment possibilities with CIA. [REDACTED]
